

House Resolution No. 384

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to recognize young men who have excelled during their association with the Boy Scouts of America program with its emphasis on physical, mental, and spiritual growth; self-reliance; personal values; service to others; and an appreciation and understanding of the wonderful natural world; and

Whereas, Logan Scott Terry of Troop 188 has successfully completed all of the stringent requirements for Scouting's highest advancement award, the rank of Eagle Scout, which will be bestowed upon him during an Eagle Court of Honor on February 16, 2008; and

Whereas, attainment of the Eagle Scout rank is dependent upon the sequential completion of each of the Boy Scout steps of Tenderfoot, Second Class, First Class, Star, and Life, and expected troop service, a requirement admirably fulfilled by Logan through the billets of Senior Patrol Leader, Instructor, and Junior Assistant Scoutmaster; and

Whereas, diligent labors by Logan earned him Tom Tom Beater status in the Tribe of Mic-O-Say, a Coup of the Long Trail, Recruiter recognition, the Duty to God religious award, and thirty-five merit badges that are arrayed on his uniform sash as a visual illustration of the diverse skills and knowledge which he has acquired as a Boy Scout; and

Whereas, in keeping with Scouting practice, Logan applied the knowledge that he learned at troop meetings in many camping, hiking, and service activities, including seven sessions at H. Roe Bartle Scout Reservation and a Philmont High Adventure; and

Whereas, Logan completed an Eagle Project that consisted of moving and reconstructing a library for a kindergarten through eighth-grade parochial school to encourage reading at all levels, to serve as a capstone to his Scouting career, and to stand as a constant reminder of his dedication to serving others, an admirable trait that justifies the esteemed role which Scouting plays in today's society:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the outstanding achievements realized by Logan Terry during his ten-year-long sojourn with Scouting and to congratulate him for having the drive and energy necessary to attain the rank of Eagle; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for new Eagle Scout Logan Scott Terry, son of Mark and Lisa Terry of Lee's Summit, Missouri.
